CREDIT PLUS, INC., APPOINTS TOP-PRODUCING DIRECTOR OF LENDER DIVISION, WESTERN REGION, KIMBERLY CASTRO

New role provides additional strength for Credit Plus' progressive pursuit for growth

Salisbury, Md., May 29, 2007 – Credit Plus, Inc., a leader in the credit information industry since 1928, announces it has hired Kimberly Castro as Director of Lender Division, Western Region. The former Key Account Manager and top producer at LandAmerica has 20 years of industry experience. Castro will add significant industry expertise to Credit Plus as the company continues with its aggressive growth plan.

“We are thrilled that Kimberly has joined our team and look forward to the contributions she will make to our thriving company. Her top-producing track record is impressive and sure to carry over for success in her new position,” said Allen Johnson, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Credit Plus.

In her new role, Castro will be responsible for increasing sales with the top 150 lenders in the industry, focusing on providing them with Credit Plus' products and services, including credit reports, title and flood services, and Automated Valuation Models (AVMs).

“I believe in Credit Plus and the direction it is taking,” stated Kimberly. “I’m excited to be a part of the company’s growth in becoming one of the top mortgage information providers in the nation.”

Castro is Past President of the Association of Professional Mortgage Women and a member of the California Association of Mortgage Brokers, California Association of Residential Lenders, and Mortgage Bankers Association, plus serves on legislative committees. She is frequently called upon to speak at mortgage associations' events.
